

Audio – a sonic sign system - summary

- Audition is the sense of sound perception in response to changes in the pressure exerted by atmospheric particles within a range of 20 to 20000 Hz.
- Audio interpretation of speech, music, noise is context dependent (space, semantic, emotion)
- Individual characteristics are important (thresholds of frequency spaces)
- Audio stimulates primary emotions