

Audio – Produce

Sound producing experiment results:

- The higher the interference the louder the voice.
- At a certain sound level one has to look at the conversation partner to focus on sound stream
- The noise level determines the use of additional clues, e.g. eye contact, use of hands to emphasise importance, etc.